

Pictures: Stewart Chambers

Marragul reserves player Mark Blackwood was bleeding in more ways than one during the final term of Sunday's grand final against Drouin. The Gulls were hot favourites but capitulated to a pumped up Hawks side, going down by 45 points.