

The Gazette goes to the Western Division grand final

Pictures: Stewart Chambers

Narragul reserves player Mark Blackwood was bleeding in more ways than one during the final term of Sunday's grand final against Drouin. The Bulls were hot favourites but capitulated to a pumped up Hawks side, going down by 45 points.

Garfield supporters cousins, Joel and Will Collis were painted up in support of their team at the grand final on the weekend.

Warragul supporters Alisha Twite, Kellie Boyer, Kate Boyer, Tanya Hodge and Kim Weller enjoy the biggest day of the footballing year on Sunday.

ROC supporters Aly Aslin, Carl Wallace and Jess Laurito give it their all during the Kangaroos' under 18s grand final.

The grand final had the lot including banners for the senior sides with the Stars run through stating, 'When you wish upon the Stars, all your dreams come true.'

TRENCHING

Limited access areas and large jobs.
Domestic, rural and irrigation water installations.

4WD Ditchwitch Trenchers (2 sizes avail.)
4WD Mini Backhoe and Front End Loader

Trenching for:

- Power • Water • Gas • Drainage
- Foundations • Agie Drains • Telstra

ALL AREAS

Congratulations to BOB

Pictures: Meagan Trotter.

Above and Top: Concentration is the key and three-year old Kane Tyrrell demonstrated that at half time on Sunday, executing a drop punt that Stars spearhead Mal McKenna

Interested onlookers at Nar Nar Goon on the weekend included Brendan Marshall, Ben Murphy, Andrew Osler and Western Bulldogs star Robert Murphy.

Above: Car park attendants Chris Adams and Jake Wright had a busy day directing traffic at Nar Nar Goon with a record crowd attending the grand finals on Sunday.

Below left: WGLFL general manager Chris Soumlias, sponsors Greg Ross and Geoff Kimmitt (CUB) with